

- ☑ Are you a graduate student?
- ☑ Do you need to fulfill a research skill requirement?
- ☑ Would your research benefit if you could read German?

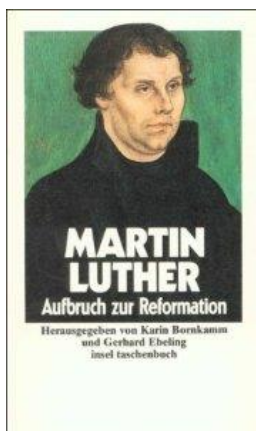

If so, take GRMN 7151 in Fall 2017!

GRMN 7151: German for Reading (CRN 91007)

Fall 2017 – Thursdays 4:30-7:00pm

No prior knowledge of German needed to succeed! Emphasizing reading, discussing, and translating authentic German texts into English, this course surveys German language and grammar basics. For their final projects, students will select works relating to their own research to read, summarize, and translate. Completion of the course with a grade of B or above fulfills graduate language requirements.
