

The GSU Center for Hellenic Studies presents

A public lecture series by Dr. Michael Herzfeld
“The Burden of History in Classical Lands”
October 8-11, 2019

Dr. Michael Herzfeld

Lecture Series and Film Screening

Tuesday, October 8, 2019: “Emerging from Rebellion: The Past as a Crisis of Legitimacy”
7:00pm, Room 223 at 25 Park Place

Wednesday, October 9, 2019: “Nationalism’s Many Forms: Greece and Italy Compared”
7:00pm, Room 223 at 25 Park Place

Thursday, October 10, 2019: “Subversive Archaism: The Agony of Traditionalism in Greece and Italy”
7:00pm, Room 223 at 25 Park Place

Friday, October 11, 2019, Film Screening: “Monti Moments: Men’s Memories in the Heart of Rome”
3:00pm, Kopleff Recital Hall

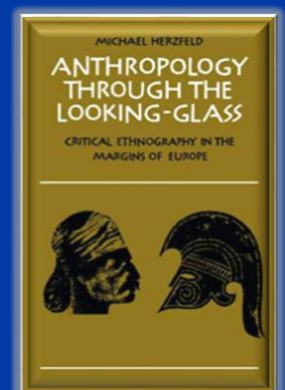

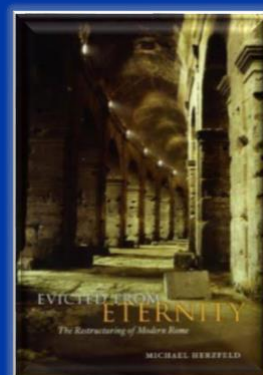

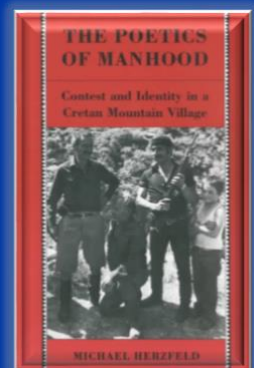

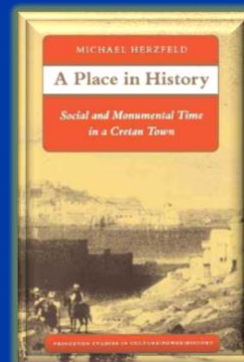

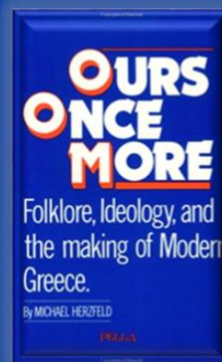

The Speaker

Ernest E. Monrad Research Professor of the Social Sciences in the Department of Anthropology at Harvard University

IIAS Visiting Professor of Critical
Heritage Studies at the University of Leiden (Netherlands)

Chang Jiang Scholar and Visiting
Professor, Shanghai International Studies University (China)

Professorial Fellow, Faculty of the Humanities, University of Melbourne
(Australia)

All events are free and open to the public
A reception will follow Friday’s film screening
For more information see our website at hellenicstudies.gsu.edu/