

ANTH 4350/6350

Anthropology and Natural History Museums in the Netherlands Summer 2021, taught by Dr. Frank L'Engle Williams

- Three-credit virtual study abroad experience designed to expose students to anthropology & natural history museums of the Netherlands and Belgium
- Asynchronous with three quizzes based on lectures given using Kaltura and eReserve readings posted on iCollege
- Lectures include Dutch history, culture & society, Dutch language, the Yellow Coffins of the priests of Amun curated at the Dutch Antiquities Museum and other relics exhibited at Dutch museums
- Field journal documentation of virtual tours at 10 museums, and the historic city centers of Amsterdam and Brussels
- A final comparative table compares and contrasts museum narratives and exhibitions

